Dear Parents and Carers,

Next week, is National Anti-Bullying week nationwide. Odd Socks day will take place on the second day of Anti-Bullying Week to help raise awareness of bullying therefore children are invited to come to school on Tuesday 12th November wearing a pair of odd socks (over tights if necessary).

What is Odd Socks day?

Most importantly, Odd Socks Day is designed to be fun! It's an opportunity to encourage people to express themselves and celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique!

From playgrounds to parliament, our homes to our phones, this Anti-Bullying Week let's 'Choose Respect' and bring an end to bullying which negatively impacts millions of young lives. This year, we'll empower children and young people to not resort to bullying, even when we disagree and remind adults to lead by example, online and offline. Imagine a world where respect and kindness thrives — it's not just a dream, it's in the choices we make. Join us this Anti-Bullying Week and commit to 'Choose Respect'. What will you choose?

The children will also be watching a special Andy and the Odd Socks assembly. The theme of this year is 'Choose Respect'. I have enclosed a useful parents pack that will help guide you in talking with your child about 'falling out' and 'bullying'. Of course, do come and speak to your child's teacher if you have any queries or concerns.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely

Mr Vaughan, Miss Stephens and Mrs Millington-Jones
